Jennifer Keyrouz is a senior associate at SAAS specialised in international arbitration and litigation.

Jennifer has extensive experience in assisting Lebanese and international companies as well as governments and state-owned companies in various jurisdictions across Europe, the Middle East and the GCC.

She acts as legal counsel in international disputes arising out of commercial contracts and investment protection treaties. Her experience covers a broad range of business sectors, including the distribution, construction, hospitality, oil and gas, aviation and defence industries.

She represents clients in international arbitration proceedings conducted under the ICC, ICSID, DIAC, BCCI and UNCITRAL rules.

Prior to joining SAAS in 2013, Jennifer gained international experience in Paris in the international arbitration practice groups of Orrick Rambaud Martel LLP, Dechert LLP and Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP.

She is fluent in English, French and Arabic.

WWL says: Jennifer Keyrouz is well versed in commercial and investment arbitration and is widely held to be “extremely knowledgeable in the international arbitration field”.
